Old Faithful, the infamous cone geyser located in Yellowstone, got its name because of how dependable its eruptions are. The geyser erupts about every hour and a half, on average, and more than 90 percent of predictions about its eruptions are, according to the Park Service, accurate within a ten-minute window.

Abraham Lincoln is in the Wrestling Hall of Fame. Defeated only once in approximately 300 matches, Lincoln reportedly talked a little smack in the ring. According to Carl Sandburg's biography of Lincoln, Honest Abe once challenged an entire crowd of onlookers after dispatching an opponent: "I'm the big buck of this lick. If any of you want to try it, come on and whet your horns." There were no takers.

Since the 1950s, Wyoming has been a politically conservative state. The state has been carrying a Republican Party’s presidential candidate every election since 1968. In the 2016 presidential election, Donald Trump won in Wyoming with 46 points or 67.4 percent. This became the best performance in the 21st century as well as Trump’s best performance in any state.

The mythical creature known as the jackalope was “born” in the 1930s when, in Douglas, Wyoming, Douglas Herrick and his brother Ralph decided to add antlers to a dead jackrabbit they had taxidermied. They sold the creatures—and their tall tale—to anyone willing to buy. You can still get a jackalope hunting license in the city.

The country's first female governor was also elected in Wyoming. After Nellie Tayloe Ross's husband, Governor William Bradford Ross, passed away, she was elected to finish his term. She served as the 14th governor of the state from 1925 to 1927, and was later appointed by FDR to serve as the director of the United States Mint. She is still the only female governor that the state has ever had.

The Wind River actually changes its name in the middle of the stream becoming the Big Horn River at a site at the north end of the Wind River Canyon, where each year the Native Americans hold a ceremony depicting the “Wedding of the Waters.”

You know you are from Wyoming when...

- You have ever uttered the term "Greenie" to describe someone from Colorado
- Your town has an equal number of bars and churches
- You don't know what two-wheel drive is
- You are outnumbered by antelope
- You refer to a place with a population of 10,000 or more as a "big city"
- Stepping outside is worse than getting into the "Hurricane Generator" at the Eastridge Mall
- You have ever worn a t-shirt in sub-zero temperatures
- You design your kid's Halloween costume to fit over a snowsuit
- If parking your car for the night involves an extension cord
- If 'vacation' to you means going shopping for the weekend in Casper or Cheyenne (while the kids swim at the Comfort Inn)
- If your local Dairy Queen is closed from November through March
- If there are more people at work on Christmas Eve Day than on Opening Day of Deer Season

Because so much is riding on your tires.®

It's always been easier for me to help others

than to help myself

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.
